

Dr. Rita Vasta – Delcastle Technical High School

Rita holds a B.A. in Science from Glassboro State College and a Ph.D. in Chemistry from Drexel University. She was an industrial research chemist and manager at DuPont before entering the teaching profession. She taught at the Charter School of Wilmington and in 2010 moved to New Castle County Vocational School District holding positions of science specialist, instructional coach and school leader intern before becoming the assistant principal at Delcastle Technical High School. She is also a member of the Delaware STEM Council and Chair of the Delaware STEM Educator Awards committee.