

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

SUPPLY CHAIN

Our world-class Supply Chain and Global Procurement early career program drives improvement in DuPont's supply chain performance and accelerates development of next generation DuPont professionals.

- > Undergraduate or graduate degree in Supply Chain Management, Procurement, Operations Management/Logistics, Industrial Engineering, or related field; 0-3 years experience.
- > 3.0 or greater GPA
- > 6 months of work and/or research experience
- > Legal right to work in the United States without restriction

Role Rotations/Certifications

- > Minimum of 2 roles, 18-24 months each
- > Optional 3rd rotation
- > Rotational roles include:
 - > Supply Chain (Asset Scheduler, Material Planner)
 - > Global Procurement (Buyer, Improvement Leader, Logistics ops)
- > Certifications (while in role): Green Belt & CPIM (required); SCOR & CPSM (optional)

Our team works every day to deliver essential products for the world to thrive. We want you to be part of the team that delivers results that matter and products that impact the world.

STUDENT PROGRAMS:

Internship → 3 months or

Co-Op → 6-7 months

- > Work collaboratively with DuPont Supply Chain and Procurement professionals on meaningful projects to deliver real impact.
- > Establish networks with people in diverse roles & with various experiences
- > Develop insights into future career choices

Salary ranges (sourced from Glassdoor.com):

Supply Chain Analyst: $48,000 - $78,000 /

Supply Chain Manager: $50,000 - $88,000

careers.dupont.com